BISHOP MIAH WHITE

PASTOR | INTERCESSOR | WORSHIP LEADER | SONG WRITER | AUTHOR | WORLD CHANGER

Bishop Miah White is the Lead Pastor of The Worship Center STL and the youngest daughter of Bishop George White Jr. Th.D. and Lady Sharon White. A member of the Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship International since childhood, she rose through the ranks displaying exceptional devotion to the Ministry of Worship. Her leadership spanned the Central, Midwest, and Southern Atlantic regions, earning her global recognition and leading to her appointment as 1st Assistant to the Bishop of Worship from 2018 to 2024. She now serves as the Bishop of Prophetic Development in the Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship.

In 2014, she made history as the youngest African American female Senior Pastor, and in 2024, she became the youngest consecrated African American female Bishop. Known for her prophetic voice, leadership, and mentorship, Miah channels her passion for service into initiatives supporting education, social justice, and economic development through collaborations with organizations like the Urban League and STL Public Schools.

Her leadership is a transformative example of faith, empowerment, and legacy, inspiring others to unlock their potential and impact the world around them.

TRAILBLAZER AND VISIONARY

Bishop Miah White is a visionary in ministry, leading with bold inclusivity and breaking historic barriers as both the youngest African American female Senior Pastor and later as the youngest consecrated African American female Bishop. Her journey marks groundbreaking milestones in pastoral leadership, setting a transformative example of empowerment, inclusivity, and a fresh approach to modern ministry.

COMMUNITY ADVOCATE AND CHANGE AGENT

Armed with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology and a minor in Social Work, she channels her passion for service into initiatives aimed at fostering academic achievement, social consciousness, and economic development. Collaborating with esteemed organizations like the Urban League and STL Public Schools, she champions education and empowerment.

DYNAMIC WORSHIP LEADER AND PROPHETIC VOICE

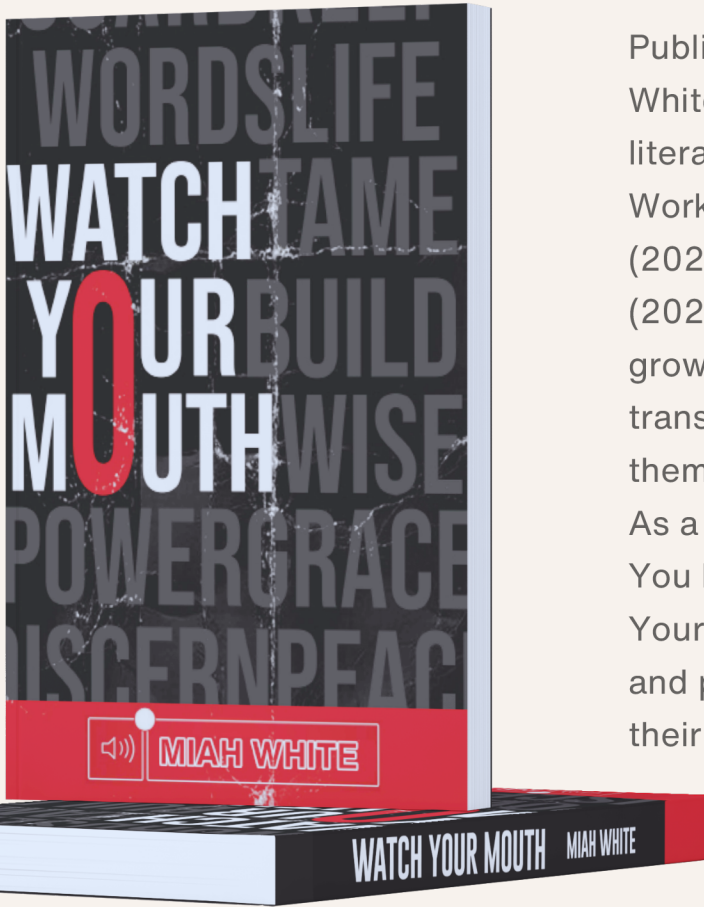

A daughter of The Full Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship International since the young age of 11, Miah has become a prominent leader in the “1st changed generation.” Under the leadership of Bishop William Murphy III, she rose through the ranks displaying exceptional devotion to the Ministry of Worship. Her leadership extended across Central, Midwest, and Southern Atlantic regions, earning her global acclaim and culminating in her appointment as 1st assistant to the Bishop of Worship from 2018 to 2024. Now, as Bishop of Prophetic Development, she is celebrated for her prophetic insight and guidance.

BRIDGE BUILDER FOR GENERATIONAL MINISTRY

As a bridge between generations, Bishop White’s journey from inheriting her father’s pastoral mantle to becoming a trailblazing figure herself is a testament to the importance of legacy and transition in ministry. Her leadership reflects an authentic respect for tradition while championing the voice and vision of the emerging generation. Through her journey, she provides guidance on navigating intergenerational leadership dynamics and carrying forward a legacy with renewed vision and purpose.
